

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

The Board and Management is responsible for the corporate governance of the Company and has adopted a suite of corporate governance policies and procedures based on control systems and accountability. A summary of the Company's corporate governance policies and procedures is included in this Statement. The Company's corporate governance policies and procedures are in line with the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (4th Edition) (Corporate Governance Principles). The Company has followed the Principles and Recommendations where the Board has considered the recommendation to be an appropriate benchmark for its corporate governance practices. Where, after consideration by the Board, the Company's corporate governance practices depart from the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, the Board has disclosed the departure and the reason for the adoption of its own practice, consistent with the "if not, why not" exception reporting regime in the Corporate Governance Principles.

Other information about the Company's Corporate Governance practices as adopted by the Board and which are regularly reviewed to ensure they remain consistent with the needs of the company are set out on the Company's website at <https://northernminerals.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2024/10/Corporate-Governance-Statement-2024-FINAL.pdf>

This statement was reviewed and approved by the board on 28 October 2024.

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	COMPLY	EXPLANATION

Recommendation 1.1 A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Yes	The Board has adopted a formal Board Charter that details the functions and responsibilities of the Board and management. The Board is responsible for the strategic direction of the Company, establishing goals for management and monitoring the achievement of these goals, monitoring the overall corporate governance of the Company. The key responsibilities of the Board are to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • appoint and review the performance of the Chairman and management; • develop and approve, with management, strategy, planning, exploration programs and major capital expenditure; • arrange for effective budgeting and financial supervision; • ensure that appropriate audit arrangements are in place; • ensure that the effective and appropriate reporting systems in place will, in particular, assure the Board that proper financial, operational, compliance and risk management controls function adequately; and • report to shareholders. Management is responsible for implementing the Company's strategies, the management and protection of its resources and day-to-day

		communication with its shareholders, all in accordance with the policies, systems and procedures approved by the Board. These policies are set out in the Board Charter which is posted on the Company's website.
Recommendation 1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director	Yes	The Company's Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter covers the process of periodically reviewing the structure and balance of the Board and making recommendations regarding appointments, retirement and terms of officers. Directors are appointed based on the specific governance skills required by the Company. The Company's current directors have relevant experience in either the operations and/or accounting/legal and financial management and relevant business experience. Each member of the Board is committed to spending sufficient time to enable them to carry out their duties as a director of the Company as specified in their appointment arrangements. The Board must identify and recommend candidates only after considering the necessary and desirable competencies of new Board members to ensure the appropriate mix of skills and experience. Consideration is also given to the balance of independent directors. Prior to election as a director for the first time, appropriate checks are conducted into the candidate's background and experience including if they will qualify as an independent director, taking into account details of any position, interest or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence their capacity to be independent. All material information relevant to whether or not to elect or re-elect a director is provided to the Company's shareholders as part of the Notice of Meeting and explanatory statement for the relevant meeting of shareholders which addresses the election or re-election of a director. These policies are set out in the Remuneration and Nomination and Committee Charter which is posted on the Company's website.

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	COMPLY	EXPLANATION
Recommendation 1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	The Company has written agreements in place with all directors and senior executives setting out the terms of their appointment.
Recommendation 1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The Company Secretary is responsible for ensuring Board procedures are complied with and that governance matters are addressed. All directors have direct access to the company secretary who is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chairman, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.
Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; (ii) the entity's progress in achieving them; and (iii) either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (A) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in the Workplace Gender Equality Act 	No	The Board has adopted a formal diversity policy and this is disclosed on our website at https://northernminerals.com.au/about-us/#corporate. The Board has not set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity given the present size of the Company. The Board will be reviewing this throughout the next reporting period and measurable objectives and targets will be considered for achieving improvement in diversity at all levels, in particular gender diversity and Aboriginal representation. It is noted that the Company recognises and respects the value of diversity at all levels of the organisation and the benefits arising from employee and Board diversity, including a broader pool of high-quality employees, improving employee retention, accessing different perspectives and ideas, and benefitting from all available talent. Northern Minerals has at date of this report 37 employees, of which 11 are women (30%). There are 3 women in senior executive positions. (60%). The Company recognises that diversity extends to matters of gender, marital or family status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, disability, ethnicity, religious beliefs, cultural background and socio-economic background. The Company seeks to identify suitable candidates from a diverse pool. The Company is not a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act.

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	COMPLY	EXPLANATION
Recommendation 1.6 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in accordance with that process or in respect of that period	No	The Board has adopted a self-evaluation process to measure its performance each year. This process includes a review of the composition, performance, effectiveness and skills mix of the directors of the Company. Given the small size of the Board, the Executive Chairman maintained open communication with all Board members and senior executives throughout the year. The Executive Chairman was responsible for evaluation of the Board and its members on an informal and as required basis throughout the financial year. Whilst no formal performance evaluations in respect of the Board and individual directors was undertaken during the past financial year, the performance of the Board and the directors was regularly assessed by the Executive Chairman and appropriate feedback provided where required. The Company's Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter includes a requirement to undertake an annual performance evaluation of the Board, its Committees and individual Directors as appropriate. The Committee will undertake these annual performance evaluations within the next reporting period.
Recommendation 1.7 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process or in respect of that period.	Yes	Arrangements put in place by the Board to monitor the performance of the Company's executives include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Annual performance evaluations carried out by the Executive Chairman against an established set of performance targets. During the reporting period the performance evaluations for the senior executives has taken place in accordance with the disclosed process. The performance of senior executives was regularly assessed on an informal basis throughout the year and feedback provided where required.
